THE CARELESS CRITIC.

'Ave I ever wrote for the papers ?
Well that aint exac'ly my lay,
But I'll tell yer what I can, sir,
A bit about this 'ere play.
It was done down 'ere last week, sir,
Yer 'air will rise on yer 'ed,
It was all about murders and ghosties
And wishin' a bloke 'e was dead.
Oh it fair give me the 'orrers,
My flesh went first goosey then 'ot,
And the lady a-sittin' aside me
She cried like a kid in its cot.
Well, there was the 'Aunted Chamber
With ghosties all dressed up in white
What once a year come to life, sir,
And pison each other at night.
Then a lidy what's lost 'er 'usband
What she picked up out East, don't yer see ?
Talks all about snakes and the 'eat, sir,
While 'er sister is 'andin' 'er tea.
In the next one, a bloke started wishin'
With a bit of a monkey's dry paw,
'E wished till 'e killed 'is own son, sir,
An' 'is ghost came an' rapped on the door.
Then a feller came on with two lidies
An' a lass in a cotten gown,
Oh 'e used some 'orrible langwidge—
'E cussed 'em all up 'ill and down.
It fair give me the 'ump, sir,
I nearly give 'im the bird,
When somebody started laughin'
And I couldn't 'ear a word.
I never see anyfing like it,
An' I been to some plays in me time,
I've seen "The 'Angman's Confession"
An' "Our Sister Annie's Crime."
But it wasn't so bad on the 'ole, sir,
They was all on 'em doing their bit ;
If yer want my verdict, it's this, sir,
The "Players" each time scored an 'it.

THE MONTH'S LECTURES.

THE Lectures and Debates continue to attract crowded audiences. On 1st November, Lieut. Leo. Walmsley, M.C., described the "War on the Seashore" between the various animals most vividly. His address was illustrated by a number of original lantern slides.

Mr. Maurice Hulbert opened the debate on the 8th November, and spoke upon "Economics and Unemployment. Mr. Hulbert's suggested remedies for unemployment provoked an interesting discussion, and here it may be said that the debates are becoming a little one-sided, owing to the preponderance of debaters who speak from the Labour point of view. Debaters holding Coalition, Liberal or Conservative opinions are urged to attend and speak. The two remaining lectures for November were respectively, on the 15th by Mr. T. F. Finucane, on "The Romance of Wireless—a vividly interesting lecture, this closing with a promise from Mr. Finucane to come down again and give an actual demonstration—and "The Wonders of Fish Lief," by Mr. W. A. Hunter, on the 22nd, a most informative lecture, describing the habits of fish and their various bird enemies, illustrated by some splendid lantern slides.

Mr. T. Nicholson, the honorary operator of the lantern, must have a special word of praise for the prompt and efficient manner in which he carries out his duties.

THE PLAYERS' PERFORMANCE.

BRENTHAM residents had one of their periodic delights on the evening of November 19th, when the Brentham Players gave the second performance of their seventh season. Incidentally the Players proved three things: first, that Brentham's Hall has been outgrown; second, that even if the boiler is out of order the atmosphere can be in a short time made suffocatingly hot; and third that, with several of its leading players resting, the Society can find adequate cast for four plays without anyone doing two jobs in the same evening.

The Plays produced were "Shades of Night," "Bobbie settles down," "The Monkey's Paw," and "Between 8 and 8.30," the last-named by our Mr. W. Macfarlane. Each deserves a separate criticism, but a general one must suffice. Not one case of bad casting can be pointed out, and in some cases, particularly those of the characters played by Miss E. Brampton, Miss S. Salisbury and Mr. McAllen, the parts fitted like a glove. Miss C. Martin and Mr. A. Collier were incommoded by the smallness of the room, which two very solid ghosts (Miss D. Carter and Mr. J. H. Ward) easily filled; their chief efforts were directed to avoiding bumping into intangible spirits. Mrs. M. Kell and Mr. Fairchild produced the best intensive acting of the evening, and were ably assisted by Mr. Toms (an old soldier) and Mr. C. Cooper (their son). Mr. W. Middleton's appearance as Mr. Sampson gave a false impression of his part; not usually does an undertaker's man come to break the news.

Very natural was Mrs. Blomeley, and, as her maid, Miss V. Morris did her little well. Mrs. Fairchild showed quite praiseworthy dignity, even when Benjy (Mr. Macfarlane) was raving at his mother-in-law and the audience was drowning them both in roars of laughter. In a small part, Mrs. Reading kept the fun at its proper level when the others needed to take breath.

Mr. W. Deller's pianoforte playing was enjoyed by those near by. The week's chatter prevented anyone else enjoying it.

BRENTHAM CLUB AND INSTITUTE.

THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE are giving a good deal of attention to the administration of the Grounds with a view to satisfying, as far as possible, the varied requirements of the out-door sections. The keenest critics will admit that the abnormal season through which we have passed is responsible to a great extent for the non-realisation of many of the hopes of improvement; but we feel sure that all sections will be ready to allow the criticisms of the past, however much we have profited by them, to give way to a co-operative policy for the future. The Central Committee are endeavouring to realise their own and the sections' ambitions in every possible way. One of the chief objects to this end appears to be the raising of the position of the groundsman more in keeping with the usual status of groundsmen as recognised by all Clubs of any standing; and steps will no doubt be taken for more frequent direct consultation by the Central Committee with representatives of out-door sections and the groundsman. There are schemes of improvement which call for capital expenditure and much labour, and the Committee intend to deal with these as a whole, and when the pet schemes of Tennis, Cricket, Bowls and Golf are realised, we are assured that the Grounds staff will be able to carry on to the satisfaction of every reasonable member.

* * * *

It is not too late to join the Holiday Club—Mondays, at 8.

* * * *

The Institute Committee invite all members of the Institute to a re-union on New Year's Eve, when a "free night" is the rule as in past years. It must be noted, however, that Institute members only are invited, and in no circumstances can visitors be admitted; and members must produce their cards of membership.

Junior Section.

The Children's Committee wish to draw special attention to the Operetta. For particulars see Social Committee Page.

It is hoped that the efforts of Mr. Collinson and his helpers to ensure success will meet with the reward of seeing a packed "house" on both these evenings. Tickets can be obtained from any Member of the Children's Committee.

* * * *

The Junior teams have not been quite so successful during the past month. The First team lost to the County and Highview by 1—0 and 5—1 respectively, while the second team lost to Curzon 3—1, but quite overplayed a mixed County team to the extent of 8—0.

BRENTHAM EX-SERVICE MEN'S ASSOCIATION.

MEMBERS are reminded that Subscriptions are now due, and can be paid to the Secretary, 28, Ludlow Road.

Attention is also drawn to the Xmas Appeal for Benevolent Funds accompanying this Issue. The Committee earnestly hope that it will meet with a good response, particularly from Members more fortunately situated than those needing assistance.

Sports Grant.

A dozen packets still await Claimants. This balance will be returned to the U.S.F. on 31st December next. Members who do not wish to accept the money can hand it over to the Benevolent Fund, on signing official receipt for same.

Basic Slag—In order that arrangements be made for delivery of Seed Potatoes, Fertilisers, etc., it is desired that all Basic Slag be removed from the Society's Shed during this month.

Membership Fees—Subscriptions 1/6 are now due. New Membership Cards may be obtained at the Shed.

Roses—Delivery of certain varieties can still be effected.

Prices—Bush, Ramblers and Climbers, 1/4 each.

The Trading Secretary has a few good strong plants on hand. These may be seen at 45, Brunner Road.

A raffle for a hare has taken place—within five hundred miles of the Institute Committee's Sanctum. The lucky winner, it is said, invited several committee men to judge that hare's weight, and they did not discover the method by which he obtained it. Now the question has arisen: Is it splitting hairs to call hare-raffling gambling within the meaning of the act?

Mrs. Meadows wishes to thank all who showed their sympathy in her recent bereavement.

THE EVIL OF MONEY PRIZES.

There's fluttering in the dovecotes, and chatter at the 'Stute,
 The question now of gambling is strongly in dispute.
 The Whistites were quite angry, in fact a few resigned,
 They said "We want the money and not its worth in kind,"
 The Soloists were mentioned as trying to beat the book,
 They only score on paper, so innocent they look.
 Then someone said the bowlers are developing a knack
 Of winding up their matches with a penny on the jack.
 "Such fearful odds spell ruin" is what our leaders say,
 (P'raps they've been unlucky, and always had to pay).
 So those who draw the money, should they be she or he,
 Must bring receipts for purchase of butter, bread or tea.
 I once won two-and-sixpence, and tremble now with fear,
 I didn't produce a ticket for what I purchased—Beer.
 I did not want to publish the awful things I buy,
 Now I must buy some braces, a collar or a tie.
 Should I be extra lucky my wife may get a hat,
 But when you think of value there's not much chance of that.
 So all you wicked gamblers, and those who greed for gold,
 Consider yourself martyrs, and please do as you're told.

Chess Club.

The Club will meet every Monday at 8 o'clock. Special opening for December "Scotch Gambit." Notices will be placed on the Board in Main Entrance Hall. Secretary's address, 7, Meadvale Road, W. 5.

EALING HOUSING AND TOWN PLANNING ORDER.

THIS Order has a direct interest for Residents on the Estate. The land lying between the Estate and Hanger Lane is scheduled for building with not more than twelve houses to the acre. The future arterial road will cross Hanger Lane at Greystoke Farm, continue north of the line and pass diagonally across Pinches Field, just missing the Rifle Range corner of the Recreation Ground. The footpath to Brentham Halt is to be a 40 feet road, joining up with an extension of Fowler's Walk. An alternative to the latter proposal is being considered, viz., making a straight road across Pinches Field into Meadvale Road. The land north of the line is scheduled for factories, and provision is made for a further extension of the "Reservoir" Park.

It should be understood that the schemes may not be carried out for many years, but when development does take place it must be on the lines laid down in the Order.

A Public Enquiry will be held by the Ministry of Health into the Scheme.

Rifle Club.

The Rifle Club has opened its winter season at Bramley Road in splendid style by winning six matches straight off the reel. This beats their record, which previously stood at five.

Teams were entered in the Browne Martin and Burroughes and Watt Competitions, and at the time of going to press had progressed as far as the third round of the former and the third round of the latter.

The first round of the Thames Valley League will have taken place by the time these notes are published.

Bowling Club.

Now that the Bowling Season has closed until next May, bowling enthusiasts have transferred their thoughts from the game to the green. They realise how much the success of a Bowling Club depends on the care of the green during the winter months. We have had a most successful season, and it is hoped it will be repeated in 1922.

The Annual Supper was held on the 4th November at the Star and Garter Hotel, Kew Bridge. The captain, Mr. H. Boxall presided, and after making a few remarks with reference to the Club, made a presentation of a gold medal to Mr. T. Thornton, the winner of the 1921 Championship. After the supper the whole party adjourned to the Chiswick Empire.

The evening was an unqualified success.

S.

Brentham Players.

We had another splendid evening on Saturday, November 19th, when for the first time in our history four plays were produced at one performance. Unfortunately, owing to the state of the scenery, the waits were rather long. The Hall was more than full and even then admission was refused to some supporters.

Any suggestions which would increase our present limited space without costing too much money would be gladly received.

Our thanks are due to Mr. Deller for so ably presiding at the piano and adding to the evening's enjoyment. Several members complained about their reserved seats being so far from the stage. I reminded you all in last month's BRENTHAMITE that as our membership exceeded 100 it behoved members to get their tickets on the two nights set apart for members or they would find themselves behind the gangway. Please note the dates for the next performance and so avoid disappointment. For members only tickets will be available on Wednesday and Thursday, December 28th and 29th, between the hours of 8 and 9 p.m. On December 30th we commence selling to the general public.

The pieces for the next performance are "Q" by Stephen Leacock and Basil Hastings, and "The Younger Generation" by Stanley Houghton.

Billiards.

The Billiards and Snooker Handicaps are now in full swing, and by the time these lines are in print the second round should be drawing to a close. Although the number of entries is fairly good it falls short of the Committee's hopes. Discrepancies in the handicap figures there are bound to be, but we would ask members to keep in mind the fact that owing to the lack of interest taken in billiards during the early part of the season it has been very difficult to judge many members' positions in the handicap list. Absence from the billiards room can hardly be put forward as a plea for a long handicap, and if only members would show up in the billiards room more often the work of the committee would be much easier when the question of handicaps has to be considered. One member has expressed his disapproval of his handicap by conceding his opponents a "walk-over"; we hope that his sporting instincts (Brenthamites have a reputation as sportsmen) will lead him to reconsider his decision. We should like to call the attention of all concerned to the closing dates of the rounds. The rule with regard to the cancelling of games not played off by the appointed date will be strictly enforced.

The first flying handicap (50 up) resulted in a great fight between Messrs. B. Line and H. P. Sebborn in the final, the latter eventually winning. The number of entries was very gratifying and some close games resulted. We hope that the interest will be sustained in the next "flyer" which it is intended to promote shortly.

The five-minute competition held last month produced 47 entries, premier honours falling to Messrs. Toms and Sebborn, who tied.

In our first match against Mr. S. K. Hobday's team we registered a victory by 42 points and 4 games to 2. The following represented the B.C. and I. :— Messrs. Line, Hammond, Clegg, Golsworthy, Levasseur and Sebborn. On the 5th of this month we are visiting the Central Y.M.C.A. in Tottenham Court Road.

Horticultural Society.

At the Annual General Meeting held on 31st October the following officers were elected :—

President: Mr. T. Bowles; Secretary: Mr. R. G. Barber; Trading Secretary: Mr. J. W. Small; Treasurer: Mr. A. E. Senhenn.

Committee: Messrs. F. W. Green, J. Coburn, G. Morriss, T. Luxford, C. Wright, F. G. Curle, A. Black, R. A. Back.

Owing to the terms of the Seed Act, 1921, the work of packeting up seeds will not be undertaken by the Committee during the coming season. It is proposed to offer Sutton's seeds in packets similar to those of last year, and to supplement the supply by the purchase of Ellison's seeds in penny packets.

Interesting leaflets dealing with "Reversion" or Nettlehead of Black Currant and Nitrogenous Manures, recently issued by the Ministry of Agriculture, are available for those members who are interested in these subjects. Copies of the leaflets may be obtained at the Shed.

A considerable quantity of lime was distributed in January last. It is not proposed to obtain further supplies unless the demand is sufficient to warrant the handling of a consignment. Will those members who propose to lime their gardens or allotments kindly notify the Trading Secretary.

Ladies Section.

The use of the Common Room on Wednesday afternoon, 3 to 5-30, has been granted for Sewing purposes only. It is hoped that as many members as possible will avail themselves of this opportunity.

The Small Room will be, from the end of November, for the use of ladies only.

Football Club.

The 1st XI. are at present undefeated, but during November did not win any of their League Fixtures, whilst the 2nd XI. apparently do better away from home. This is due in my opinion to the noisy critics from the touchline who if they can score goals as well as they can give advice would be welcomed in either XI.

It is hoped to have the Charity Match on Boxing Day v. Drayton Athletic as last season on behalf of the Ex-Service Men's Benevolent Fund.

Golf Club.

The Club held a very enjoyable Dance and Whist Drive on November 3rd, and the balance of £2 resulting will be added to the sum raised in the Charity Cup Competition, enabling the Committee to send altogether £7 to the King Edward Memorial Hospital, Ealing.

The thanks of the Committee are due to members generally for the interest taken in the effort made in the cause of Charity, and especially to those who contributed to the Prize Fund and presented prizes.

A circular will shortly be distributed to all members in regard to the coming election of officers and committee for the year 1922. It is especially desired that nominations shall be sent to the Hon. Secretary by December 17th.

The Annual General Meeting will be held at the Institute on Monday, January 9th next, when it is hoped every member will make a point of being present.

COLONEL BOGEY.

Woodwork Classes.

These classes are proceeding most successfully. Mr. Line is the Instructor and occasionally Mr. Ernest White will look in to give a word of advice. There are vacancies for three or four more pupils. Any Institute member desirous of joining should pay a visit of inspection to the Cricket Pavilion on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday evening. The fee is 10/- for the course, and working drawings and wood, cut and planed, is supplied at actual cost.

They do say as how (in other words ON DIT) that the best part of the Bowls' Supper was the early breakfast at the Broadway Coffee Stall.
