OCTOBER, 1924

FAREWELL TO SUMMER.

Farewell, O Summer, wet though thou hast been,
Thou certainly has kept the country green ;
Thy rain hath been consistent, may I say,
Thus giving us a splendid crop of hay.
Thou hast to old tradition been most true,
St. Swithin will I'm sure be blessing you.
Our gardens are ablaze with verdure bright ;
Even the weeds drink to thy health each night.
Our vegetable marrows almost burst,
By daily being allowed to quench their thirst.
No more we read of rivers running dry,
Or weather forecasts of a cloudless sky.
You make our prophets' task like A.B.C.,
They simply predict rain, and rain there be.
Thou dost create a boom or slump in trade,
We hear of fortunes from umbrellas being made.
Whilst on the other hand you upset plans
Laid down by those who make our watering cans.
And yet our water rate remains the same,
As e're you started on this watery game.
Our taps may leak, our garden hose be used,
And from our annual bath we're not excused.
You really have disgraced our summer sports,
And made us tennis in jack boots and shorts.
Our cricketers have had to swim and dive,
And don lifebelts to keep themselves alive.
Our golf enthusiasts floaters have used,
And added you to things to be abused.
Our visitors to Wembley will, I know,
Think England is a land of rain and snow.
We cannot blame them if their course they steer
Through other channels in the coming year.
You've reached your limit of a watery spell,
With no regrets we say again, "Farewell."

ATOMS.

Asked by an Englishman what he thought of our English summer, an American visitor replied that he could not really judge as he was confined to his bed both days.

BRENTHAM CLUB AND INSTITUTE, LTD.

THE MEMBERS of the House Committee have been hard at work arranging a series of Social Events at the Institute to inaugurate the Winter Season. (The facetious amongst our readers may inquire if they may have a little summer first!) However, Committees cannot take the blame for everything that goes wrong, and the best we can do is to make as good a start as possible with indoor activities. The week's programme contained in this number will surely appeal to every Brenthamite in one way or another. We want very much to welcome a lot of new members during the first week of October. There are dancers on the Estate who have never danced at the Institute despite all the inducements to do so. To all those we extend a hearty welcome. Call round and get your ticket; there are no Visitors' Fees to pay. If you can't possibly come on Saturday, the 4th, there will be other Dances in October: Saturdays, the 18th and 25th. The Opening Dance is sure to be well attended, and the Dance for the Children on Monday, the 6th, should be just as successful. Brentham Children have always been well catered for, and their Special Monday Evenings will have a great start this Season. Any child can obtain a ticket for 4d. and can bring their young friends at the same price; no Visitors' Fees.

* * * * *

WE HAVE HEARD of a few Brentham Billiards Players who have not yet played on their own tables. The Billiards Committee would be very pleased to meet them. You will find a Member of the Committee in charge of the Billiards Room any evening, from 7 to 10-30, and he would be pleased to make your acquaintance. Tuesday, the 7th, would be an excellent evening to introduce yourself, you will be treated as a member on the spot, and can enter for a Flying Handicap.

* * * * *

PING PONG STARTS in earnest on Tuesday, too; if you are an expert we shall be wanting your assistance to make Ping Pong a success. We have never yet got going, but a new table and apparatus is being installed, and we are told that there are a number of enthusiasts at Brentham, so we hope the installation will be justified.

* * * * *

QUITE A NUMBER of people thoroughly enjoyed the Social Evening provided by the younger Members some time ago, and the Opening Week would be incomplete without another entertainment of the same type. This is an ideal evening for new members to come and enjoy an evening at the Institute. The price of a ticket is 6d., and plenty of entertainment is assured.

THERE WERE big Whist Drives at the Institute in what some of us called "the old days," and devotees of cards are sanguine about a revival, so, on Thursday we shall expect you at the Whist Drive. Tickets are 1/- each, and you won't be asked whether you are a Member of the Institute or not. If you like Whist Drives, you will enjoy this one; so get your ticket in advance. A Bridge Drive has been fixed for Friday evening in the Small Hall.

* * * * *

THE WEEK would not be complete without Brentham Players, and of course the Hall will be crowded as usual when they produce their First Play of the Season on Saturday, the 11th.

* * * * *

READERS of THE BRENTHAMITE may be inclined to criticise us for a certain amount of repetition in this month's number, but we are trusting it won't be in vain. We want to induce those who live amongst us to join us in our Social Life, and this is a special opportunity which should not be missed.

* * * * *

NO VISITORS' FEES this week, and you may join the Institute to the 31st December at very low rates. There is also a specially reduced fee for Golf to the 31st March.

* * * * *

THE EDUCATIONAL SIDE has not been neglected and attention is called to the announcement in this issue as to the French Classes. Those who desire instruction in Woodwork should send in their names to the Secretary at the Institute.

OUT AND ABOUT.

Beware ! the OPENING WEEK at the Institute is upon you.
Mind you fall in !

* * * * *

The Hockey Week is also approaching. Roll on, and stick it !

* * * * *

Congratulations to Mr. J. J. Phillips on his "first," with a score of 296, in the Middlesex Championship at the London Small Bore Rifle Meeting of the Society of Miniature Rifle Clubs, held at Petersham on September 21st. Also to Mr. T. W. Tovey, who was third in the Middlesex Tyros at the same Meeting, with a score of 99.

* * * * *

"Why not Golf?" asks "Veteran" in the W.M. Gazette, and urges :
"If suitably clad there is no better outdoor recreation than golf."

Yes, there is something to be said for golf ; it does give the plus fours and brogues a chance.

* * * * *

Among the new conditions to apply to acting members of the Dramatic Society is : "Time for acceptance of a part, one week." Oh, what a week of "To-be-or-not-to-be," that will be for the more modest of our Players. Of course in extreme cases the offer will meet with its acceptance or non-acceptance instantaneously, and in a few cases the refusal may be sent before the offer is made. The anticipatory one will just drop the Secretary a line or two in something after this style :—"Dear Sir, I see that our Society is playing 'The Murder of a Fool' next month. Now, don't ask me to take the villain's part unless you fancy your chances as the other chap." The young lady who is asked to play the part of a rich heiress will just murmur, "This is so sudden. I will let you know before the moon has risen seven times." She will then roam about with a wandering look in her eyes for seven long days and nights, and then finally say the "Yes" that she was secretly dying to say at the first. For the mere male member of the Society this week's interim will give just sufficient time for obtaining the better half's permission. She, of course, will like to be consulted, and may have something to say if there is any love-making to be done.

* * * * *

The Brentham Magazine for October, 1914, had something to say about love-making on the stage. You will find it in the copy now on the Reading-room table. Some remarks about garden hedges in that issue may also be of interest. The cricket averages are worth studying, for such names as C. Hogley and J. Gould of honoured memories, and C. Leveroni, V. Critchley, R. Goodyer, H. Hilton, A. Briggs, and H. W. Bryceson remind us of men who once played the game in Brentham.

Other cricketers of those days were C. B. Askew, A. J. Bray, H. E. Boxall (who topped the 2nd's batting averages), G. Richardson, A. R. Turtill, T. C. Austin, and N. Levasseur.

ON DIT :

That there has been a hunt for last month's " Young Blood."

That at last the Billiards Room is to be reserved for Billiards.

* * * * *

That the Brentham's Own Garage proposal has aroused interest in the desired quarter.

A lady's small bag containing door key, etc., was picked up on the Estate on September 23rd. Owner can have same by applying to Mr. J. B. Terry, 111, Fowler's Walk.

CORRESPONDENCE

DEAR MR. EDITOR,

There are troubles ahead. The bonfire season is upon us and on various portions of waste land in Brentham vast piles of rubbish are being deposited.

I suggest that we have one big flare up similar to the Sports Day Bonfires of other days, and that all gardeners bring their woody rubbish (not cabbage leaves and wet grass) to the ground at the lower end of Fowler's Walk. Then on November 5th all the youngsters could bring along their fireworks. Better still, they could put their firework money together and have a proper pyrotechnic display.

I know a gentleman who lives near that piece of waste ground and from his famous eloquent references to our children I think he would probably be willing to organise the whole affair. He might even agree to having his own effigy placed on top of the bonfire. Let us save six hundred back garden bonfires and three hundred feeble firework displays.

Yours,

B. LIZZY.

DANCE

IT FALLS to the Dance Section to provide the first event of the Open Week, which is also the opening night of the Winter Dancing Season. This year additional importance is lent to the night by reason of its dual rôle and everything is being done with a view to making the event worthy of the occasion. One thing is certain and the rest is—almost certain.

TICKETS 1/6 each.

Dancing will be from 7-30 until 11-30 p.m. For two reasons it is important that tickets should be purchased as early as possible :—

1. A large proportion of the available tickets have already been disposed of.
2. Tickets purchased prior to the Dance carry with them the possibility of winning really important prizes.

There will be a considerable number of other prizes put up for winning during the course of the evening. Tickets, so far as available, may be obtained from any Member of the Dance Committee.

This Dance is the forerunner of a series to be held on most Saturday evenings right through the winter.

Mon.
Oct. 6

SECTION NOTES.

Young Brentham.

We, who have a voice in the management of the Institute, would strongly appeal to all young people on the Estate, not members of the Institute, to come down during our Opening Week, see what the Institute offers as a place of instruction, recreation, amusement and social intercourse, join, and so add to the success and life of our Institute on this most delightful garden suburb.

Bowls.

Well ! The Bowling Season, so far as the Brentham Club is concerned, is closed, and much to the disappointment and disgust of the Bowlers and would-be Bowlers (especially those who have not had the time or inclination to migrate elsewhere), the Laurels (for the second Season in succession) remain with Heads, Experts, Weed-pullers and Co.

This enforced inactivity of the Club, to say nothing of the presumably considerable loss of revenue to the Institute, which is possibly a mere bagatelle in the miserable fiasco, leads one to anticipate the appearance in some future 'ITE' of the following announcement :—That Bowlers are awaiting the honour of investing their "Mites" in the next "Grounds Improvement Scheme." P'raps !

What prospect is there in store for next year ? Our Weed Island had another clean shave recently, and one wonders why ? Can it be that somebody objected to one admiring the multitude of pretty little weed-flowers and foliage sporting themselves thereon ? Then, surely, the most sensible thing to do would be at once to make a clean sweep of the whole bed and replace it with one, so far as is possible, minus weeds, and see to it that in future weed breeding and development is not encouraged, but prevented.

E.J.N.

Children's Section.

All children on the Estate and their young friends will be welcome at our Open Night Dance on Monday, October 6th. Tickets, 4d. each, are now available, and there will be no visitors' tickets to be taken. See special announcements for details. Mr. Ottaway will be glad to arrange for free use of costumes to ticket-holders.

Our full programme for members will commence in the following week.

Monday, 7—8, Library.

N.B.—Members over 12 have free access to the Senior Library.

Monday, 7.30—10, Dance, to which you can introduce a young friend on taking a visitor's ticket.

Wednesday, 6—7, Children's Hour.

Wednesday, 7.30 to 9, Billiards and Boys' Club.

Friday, 7.30—9, Billiards.

FOOTBALL.—Jack Bartholomew is waiting for a few more signatures of older boys, willing to pay 2s. 6d. ground fee for their football. He will then be able to apply to the Grounds Committee, and a pitch will be allotted.

Ex-Service Men's Association.

The ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the Association will be held in the Institute on Thursday, October 16th, at 8.30 p.m. Due notice will be forwarded to all members.

The Secretary wishes to draw the attention of members to the Fourth Annual Sports Grant which has been received. There is still a small balance of this grant undistributed, and those wishing to participate are advised to make early application to the Secretary at 53, Meadvale Road.

S.H.B.

French Classes.

LECTURER.—Miss M. Graham-Wallas, Cambridge Modern Languages, Tripos, and Diplôme d'Etudes de Civilisation Française of the University of Paris.

WEDNESDAYS, 8—10, commencing October 29th, a Class under the auspices of the University of London and W.E.A. Joint Committee, in French Literature, History and Thought. One hour's lecture in English will be followed by discussion and questions in French.

This Class will enable students with a fair reading knowledge of French, and who can carry on a simple conversation, to get into touch with one of the finest literatures and some of the greatest thinkers in the world, and at the same time to increase their vocabulary and improve their written French.

Fees—Members of the Institute ... 5/- per Term.
Non-members 7/6 „

FRIDAYS, 8—10, commencing October 31st, Elementary and Advanced French Language Classes. The direct conversational method will be followed.

Fees—Members of the Institute ... 4/- per Term.
Non-members 6/- „

Golf.

Miss Thelma Cooper is the new lady champion and Mr. H. T. Clark the new Club champion. Congratulations to them both.

Our "open meeting" on September 6th was a success in every way. We are indebted to Mr. Nicholson for his "Wireless" Concert, to Mr. Cooper for his Gramophone music, and to Mr. Mills, the Institute caterer, for the tea arrangements. I, personally, am very much indebted to all who helped in the conduct of the competition, and in many other ways. The financial result was good, and we hope that our greens will be the better next year for the attention we can now afford to give them.

Members are now received for the remainder of the season, that is till March 31st, at half fees.

Our Whist Drive is fixed for November 27th.

F.W.C.

Brentham Players.

Winter is once more waiting on the threshold, and indoor activities are re-awakened. One of the Institute's most enjoyable pastimes for winter evenings is provided by the Dramatic Society both for the actors and audience. This year the Committee were able to suggest a reduction in the subscription, and both for acting and non-acting members the fee is 6s.

Five performances will be given during the winter, and for 6s. each member receives one ticket for each performance. Members have choice of seats prior to the sale to the general public, and for non-acting members—who are really season ticket holders—there is no necessity to join the Institute. Five seats, at 1s. 10d. each, for 6s. is a profitable investment. The programme is both good and varied, ranging as it does from farce through comedy to drama. There is always room for new acting talent, especially juvenile leads of the male sex.

Acting members must be members of the Brentham Club and Institute.

Full particulars can be obtained from the Hon. Secretary, Mr. J. H. Ward, 59, Barnfield Road; or the Assistant Hon. Secretary, Mr. A. F. Kell, 39, Denison Road, Ealing.

The first performance is described on another page. By the time these notes appear ticket selling will be well advanced, so it behoves any intending member to hurry. In the entrance lobby each evening between 8 and 9 o'clock will be found

Football.

The Football Club commenced their season with a 1st Eleven game on Saturday. September 27th, v. the South American Banks F.C. We are including this season several new players, especially younger people, whom we hope will turn out to be good footballers. The fixtures for October are:—

	Oct. 4. St. Mary's (H).
Oct. 11. Osram G.E.C. F.C. (H).	„ 11. Ashchurch (A).
„ 18. Brentford Brotherhood (A).	„ 18. Palmerston (H).
„ 25. Lateera—E.H. Cup (H).	„ 25. Brentford S. George's (A).
Nov. 1. Hanwell Guild (H).	Nov. 1. Acton Congs. (A).

The Secretary hopes in a few days to have fixture cards ready, which will be presented to all honorary members for the season. The honorary membership fee is only 2s. 6d., and as the Club is faced with a heavy expenditure this season please see that the Secretary's supply of cards soon runs short.

The Secretary would be glad to welcome any lady or gentleman wishing to become an honorary member of the Club.

Arrangements have now been made for a Special Entertainment Week towards the funds of the Club, at the end of October, and will comprise a Ping Pong Tournament, Whist Drive, Concert, and Dance. The proceedings will commence with the Ping Pong Tournament in the Small Hall on Tuesday, October 28th, and be continued the following evening. The Whist Drive will take place on Thursday, October 30th, Concert on Friday, October 31st, and the Dance, with full orchestra, will be held in the Large Hall on Saturday evening, November 1st.

Useful prizes will be given for the Ping Pong Tournament (which occupies two evenings) and Whist Drive.

It is hoped to make this a great success, and residents on the Estate are cordially invited to come and bring their friends to participate in all or any of the events.

The charges for admission will be 2s. 6d. inclusive (for five days) or 1s. for any single event.

Tickets are obtainable from any of the following Committee :— Miss D. Carter, Miss I. Salisbury, Mr. W. Middleton, Mr. C. Hutton, or the Hon. Secretary.
